

BRITISH CLUB YANGON CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

British Club Membership Card - British Chamber of Commerce Members

Please present your British Club Membership Card at the Security Gate whenever you visit the Club. British Embassy Security Guards are under strict instructions not to allow a Member of the Club to enter the premises without presenting their physical membership card first. Your understanding and cooperation is appreciated.

Please keep your membership cards safe. If you lose your membership card, it's important to inform the British Chamber of Commerce Myanmar promptly. There is a charge to the Member of 15,000MMK per card to re-issue lost or damaged cards. Lost cards will take up to two weeks to replace.

Please return your British Club Membership Card when your company decides not to renew its membership with the British Chamber of Commerce Myanmar. It should be returned to the Membership Team of BCCM.

For further information or questions email: membership@britishchambermyanmar.com.

British Club Access for British Embassy and British Council staff and families

Please present your staff pass when accessing the Club.

Diplomatic Staff

For Diplomats from those Missions who can access the Club, please present your Diplomatic ID card.

Guest Policy

The British Club Yangon has a guest policy. All members should familiarise themselves with the policy when considering inviting a guest or guests to the Club. Members can invite one guest without notification – the guest must bring photo ID. Members can invite up to four guests but must inform the British Embassy Security Team at least 24 hours in advance about their guests. For further guidance, please read the Guest Policy.

Inappropriate Behaviour

Members are expected to treat fellow members, guests of members, Club staff, Embassy security staff, and any other person visiting the Club with respect and courtesy. Any form of harassment, discourteous, aggressive, and discriminatory behaviour, will not be tolerated.

Intoxicated behaviour

BRITISH CLUB YANGON CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

The Club staff are responsible for the safety of everyone in the Club and you could be asked to leave the Club should you become intoxicated and cause a nuisance. At the recommendation of the Club operator, in consultation with the British Chamber of Commerce Myanmar, offenders may be barred from the British Club Yangon either temporarily or permanently.

Confidentiality

Members and guests are expected to respect the privacy and confidentiality of other members and the Club itself.

Social media

Members are requested not to publicise the Club on social media. Photos of the surrounding FCDO estate are not permitted.

Dress Code

Members are requested to dress with respect to others using the club.

It is not permitted to enter the Club building in swimming costumes.

Use of Facilities

Members should use club facilities responsibly. This includes proper use of sports facilities, dining areas, and any other amenities. Smoking is only permitted in the designated smoking area, which is located outside the front entrance of the Club.

Payments

Members are required to settle their account on the day of consumption. There are no credit facilities offered.

Pet Policy

House-pets are allowed outside at the British Club. They must be under the control of the Member at all times. Pets are not allowed inside the British Club.

Swimming pool

The use of the swimming pool is at the Members' discretion. Rules for using the pool are posted next to the Pool. Please read the rules before entering the pool and observe the swimming pool rules at all times.
